

Assistive Technology: Any product or piece of equipment used to maintain or improve independence.

Included in the AT Fair

- Training Sessions
- Technology Displays
- Funding Options
- Community Resources
- Hands on demonstrations
- Networking with Peers

Sponsored by:

Pathways to Independence

This training is funded in part by the Medicaid Infrastructure Grant (MIG) through the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services to the Wisconsin Department of Health and Family Services-Pathways to Independence.

This event is free to all who attend.

Assistive Technology Resource Fair

Thursday, August 5, 2010

10:00 AM– 4:00PM

WITC– Rice Lake Conference Center
1900 College Drive
Rice Lake, WI 54868

Center for Independent Living
for Western WI, Inc

Training Sessions

10:00 AM - 10:45 AM

- A) Come Fly with Me
- B) Wisloan and Telework

11:00 AM - 11:45 AM

- C) Educational Assistive Technology
- D) Accessible Gardening

1:00 PM - 1:45 PM

- E). Home Safety & Easy to Make AT
- F) iPod, Smart Phones and Other Digital Technology

2:00 PM - 2:40 PM

- G) I Can Hear You Now
- H) Outdoor Recreation

3:00 PM - 3:40 PM

- I) Magnifiers & More
- J) Adaptive Transportation

Schedule of Events

9:00 AM

Registration
Open (all day)

10:00 AM - 4:00 PM

Exhibitor area is open

10:00 AM - 11:40 AM

Training Sessions

11:45 AM - 1:00 PM

Lunch– On Your Own
Browse the exhibitor area

1:00 PM - 3:40 PM

Training Sessions

Registration Form

Please Fill out and Mail To:

Center For Independent Living
for Western WI
Attn: Amanda Ackerman
331 S. Main St, Ste #6
Rice Lake WI 54868

attending: _____

Name _____

Address _____

City _____

State & Zip _____

Phone _____

Please circle sessions you plan to attend

Morning: A B C D

Afternoon: E F G H I J

If you require accommodations for this event
please notify us by 7/15/2010 at 1-866-419-1260.

Sign Language interpreters and CART services
will be provided.